

DIVORCE PETITION

Between Frederick Kesselring, Complainant

and

Mary Kesselring, Defendant

Married ^{AUG.} ~~Oct.~~ 13, 1890; resided together in Paterson until Feb. 16, 1892; moved to Jersey City, where they remained till June 13, 1894, when they separated.

Grounds: Adultery with one Harry Ray at 602 First St., Hoboken, N. J., during Oct. and Nov. 1896.

Attorneys: John H. Boon of Union Hill, N. J. for Complainant; Collins & Corbin of Jersey City for Defendant.

Tried before Chancellor Pitney at Jersey City, Nov. 8, 1897; defendant found guilty as charged and decree granted.

D. T. 9/3/26

Chief County Detective James S. Kirkham says he don't recollect Mrs Easton ever being arrested, tho numerous complaints were received by prosecutor's office about her running a disorderly house. They threatened to raid her place if any further reports came in. He said he wouldn't take her word to even convict a yellow dog.

Lewis R. Bond, 11 East Bridge St., Morrisville, Pa., attorney, said Mrs. Easton bid in $30 or $40 worth of articles at auction he conducted,; instead of paying for them got them aboard her wagon and drove over bridge in Trenton. He was